

Session Five – Common Challenges Every Group Experiences

A Panel Discussion with Steve Sonderman, Bob Branston,
John Dilliot and Rob Adams

We've talked about vision, how a small group works, and some qualities of an effective group leader. In a perfect world, we could sign off right now and send out you to lead flawless groups! But we all know that things do not always go as planned and no group is perfect. Different backgrounds, personalities and spiritual maturity can all add up to some potential challenges that are common to men's small groups.

1. The Tough Nut –

2. The Dominator –

3. The Unprepared –

Reaping the Benefits – In spite of the various challenges, there is great fruit that comes from leading men. We’ve heard countless stories at our annual No Regrets “graduation.”

- Men who have come to Christ
- Marriages healed
- Workplaces impacted
- Sense of calling and mission
- Grown in their faith
- And so much more!
